Rules and Regulations.

The Library being established under the provisions of law as a free public library, it is the purpose of the Library Board, in prescribing the following rules, to avoid all restrictions not essential to the proper custody, control and preservation of the books. These rules, therefore, will be carefully enforced and followed by those having charge of the Library, as well as those participating in its use.

RULE 1. The Library shall be under the immediate control and supervision of the Librarian, when appointed, who shall be at liberty to employ one or more assistants, subject to the approval of the Board.

RULE 2. The following persons shall be entitled to borrow books from the Library, for home use, upon the conditions prescribed in the next rule, viz:

All inhabitants of the City of Centralia above the age of fifteen years.

All persons who pay taxes to the City of Centralia, Ill.

All such persons under the age of fifteen years as are members of the Puplic High School in good standing, and such as shall obtain permission in writing from the Committee on Library.

RULE 3. All inhabitants of Centralia, of respectable character, orderly conduct and condition, shall have free access to the Library for consultation, during all regular hours.

RULE 4. No books shall be taken from the shelves in any part of the Library by any person not employed in the service of the Library.

RULE 5. No person shall have for home use more than one volume on any one day, and no book shall be retained by any person borrowing it more than fourteen days; Provided always, That any book may be borrowed twice, by the same person, but not more than twice, until it shall have been returned to the Library, and shall have remained there at least one full library day.

RULE 6. No person who has borrowed a book from the Library shall lend it to one not a member of the same household.

RULE 7 To protect the Library against loss, and to secure to all a just and equitable share in its benefits, any person detaining an imperial octavo, or larger volume longer than the regulations permit, shall be fined three cents for each day of detention, and two cents a day for the detention of a smaller volume; the Librarian being charged with the collection of these and all other dues to the Library.

RULE 8. Any book detained two weeks beyond the time limited by these regulations, shall be sent for by the Librarian, and twenty cents shall be paid by the person who has so detained it, to defray expenses of sending for it.

RULE 9. Encyclopædias, and other books needed for reference in the Library building; books not easily to be replaced, in consequence of their rarity or value; books expressly given for reference only; and books deemed by the Committee on Library to be unsuited for general circulation, shall be used only in this building; Provided, nevertheless, That in order to allow the widest practicable use of the Library consistent with its preservation and greatest efficiency, a person desiring to borrow any book whatever (except such books as may have been given on condition that they should not be taken from the Library) and stating the reason for it in writing to the Committee shall, if the reasons are deemed sufficient, be permitted to borrow it on proper conditions.

RULE 10. All injuries to books beyond a reasonable wear, and all losses, shall be made good to the satisfaction of the Librarian, by the person liable; every book detained above three months being held to be lost. The turning down of leaves shall also exclude the person liable for injuries from further use of the Library, until he obtains a written permit from the chairman of the Library Committee.

RULE 11. All books must be returned to the Library at such time, before the annual examination, as may be required by the Committee on Library, under the penalty of one dollar for each volume detained; but reasonable notice of the time of returning them shall be given in the newspapers that advertise for the city.

RULE. 12. Any stranger or person visiting the city may, on being properly recommended, temporarily receive the benefit of the books within the Library building by signing the Stranger's Book, provided for that purpose.
